NOTES:

1. Adequate notice of the proposed function should be given in order that members can be made aware of the position – short notice applications may not be approved.
2. An adequate number of Club members should be included, to ensure responsible control, dress rules must be observed and the party must be signed in.
3. Notification of the type of entertainment to be provided, together with relative times is required in order that members may be informed.
4. No food or drink is to be brought into the Club, this may only be supplied by the bar and caterer.
