

Bradford pear pruning on the golf course

We will be pruning Bradford Pear trees on the golf course this fall and winter. This is to keep them from breaking and splitting as they age. We lost 10 pear trees last year. There are about 75 Bradford Pear trees on the course. The pruning will reduce tree loss due to excessive winds. The trees may look "butchered" for now but they will look pretty good by this time next year.

