

Lindholm and Hadley pull away to win Buffalo Hill Club Championships

Superb rounds on Sunday helped Logan Lindholm and Debbie Hadley pull away from the pack and win the men's and ladies' club championships at Buffalo Hill Golf Club.

Lindholm opened with a five-under par 61 Saturday on two trips around the Cameron Nine to trail leader Ryan Buls by one stroke. Sunday, the route was on, as he played the front nine in two-under par 34, that included four birdies and a double bogey. The double bogey came on the challenging par three fifth hole, but it was sandwiched between birdies on #1, #2, #6 and #8.

The back nine started with four pars, but the lead ballooned with birdies on #14, #15 and #16. His five-under par round of 67 put him at 10-under par 128 for the weekend and a 10-stroke victory over Buls.

This was Lindholm's fifth consecutive club title and seventh overall.

Keith Ori won his first men's senior crown with a 147 total and a one-stroke victory over former senior champ Larry Hadley. Jim Schaible blew away the super-senior field with his two-day 148 total.

After winning two senior championships, Hadley finally found the overall winner's circle. Here 161 total was six strokes in front of former champion Wendy Madison.

Hadley started Sunday trailing Madison by five strokes after round one on the Cameron Nine. A one-over par 38 on the outward nine put her two in front. That nine included birdies on #1 and #8. Her inward nine started with a bogey on #10 and a double bogey on #11, but two birdies coming in on #14 and #16 helped her pull away.

Madison won the senior title with her 167 total and Jerie Clark won the ladies' super-senior division with a 169 total.

The weekend was highlighted by a hole-in-one Saturday on #7 by Sam McCartney. His nine-iron shot on the 134-yard par three flew into the pin and went straight down into the cup. His first ace was witnessed by Darold Schaffer & Norm Larsen.
