

PGA Pro-Junior held at Abercrombie

PGA Professionals and young golfers from across Atlantic Canada enjoyed the 1st Annual PGA Pro-Junior Day at the Abercrombie Country Club.

Jon Garron, PGA Atlantic Junior Development Chairman and Host PGA Professional at Abercrombie organized a fantastic day. There was no shortage of food, gifts and prizes for the young golfers.

The focus was primarily on enjoying a fun game of team golf, a few prizes were awarded with the host team Garron capturing the honours. The Abercrombie team included Evan Callaghan, Devan MacDonald, Chad Lumsden and PGA Professional Jon Garron Tied for second were the Ashburn team of Matt West, Ewan Kelly, Logan Kelly and PGA Professional Kyle Scott and the Belvedere team of Tyler Hashmi, Alex Dillion, Zack Willis and PGA Professional Jeremy Briggs.

Abercrombie Team – 2015 PGA Pro-Junior Champions

Other winners included:

Longest Putt #12	Christian Huntley	Truro
Closest to the Hole #5	Alex Dillion	Belvedere
Closest to the Hole #8	Hayden Roy	Truro
Closest to the Hole #10	Tyler Hashmi	Belvedere
Closest to the Hole #15	Andrew Cash	Bishop Brothers Golf School
Boys Longest Drive	Braden Duffley	Westfield
Girls Longest Drive	Haley Baker	Ashburn

PGA Professional Andrew Noseworthy conducted a Junior Skills Challenge. The banter was awesome as the young golfers enjoyed friendly competition adapted to their age levels.

Top Skills Performers:

Driving:

70 points - Jonah Vidito

65 points - Jacob Lorface, Morgan Barnes, Isaac MacNaughton, Braden Duffley

Irons:

80 points - Connor MacKay, Connor Davison

70 points - Ian McLean, Alex Dillon, Jonah Vidito, Evan Callaghan, Zach Forsythe

Chipping:

80 points - Alex Dillon, Patrick Jackson, Ian McLean, Dempsey Stuart, Logan Cash, Drew Ward, Devan MacDonald

Putting:

90 points - Olivia Smith, Connor MacKay, Jonah Vidito

80 points - Hayden Roy, Ian McLean

Overall Champ - Jonah Vidito

Runner-Up - Ian McLean

Young golfers enjoy Skills Challenge.