Galteres Power to Wins in Exeter Cup Member-Member Tournament

It was the Galteres, Greg and Ethan, and their partners atop the leaderboard at the conclusion of RCC's 2017 Exeter Cup Member-Member tournament.

Greg and his partner, Matt Hadley, defended their Gross Division title with rounds of 68-68 for a four-under-par total of 136. They bested the teams of Dave Seelig and Dave Speece, James Christiana and Greg Kleinert and Tim Daley and Guy McKeone, who tied at 141. Team Dave took second place on a match of cards.

In the Net Division, Ethan Galtere teamed with Brien Heisey to win at 124, 16 under par. They notched a two-stroke victory over Ron Woodring and Tom Walker, last year's Net Division champions.

The RCC golfers continued the tradition of community support with the playing of the 2017 Exeter Cup. Through hole sponsors and the tournament entry fee, the Exeter Cup proceeds will contribute approximately $1,300 to the Exeter Community Library.

Well played, RCC golfers!
