

Reading Country Club

A Memorable July 4th

July 4th was double firecracker day at Reading Country Club. Some 100 runners participated in the Sly Fox Track Club's Firecracker 5K run, the first event of its kind at RCC. About a half-hour after the race started, 46 golfers began teeing off in RCC's July 4th Firecracker two-person scramble. Each golfer played six holes from the blue tees, six from the white and six from the gold.

Steve Conrad and Don Kozik won the gross flight with a 63. Greg and Kathy Galtere took the net flight with a 56.

Most important, the golfers contributed $220 to the RCC Charity Challenge.
