Time and Grade Groupings for Lessons: (for grades entering in fall 2018)

- Grades 1-3 lesson from 12:30-2:00 and on course* from 2:00-3:30 pm
- Grades 4-6 lesson from 2:00-3:30 and on course* from 3:30-4:30 pm
- Grades 7-10 lesson from 3:30-5:00 pm and on course* from 2:00-3:30 pm

Rainouts: There will be no rainout makeup dates. If we get rained out of a session, we lose that date. The only exception is the Jr. Golf Tournament.

Jr. Golfers should dress for the weather and bring their own clubs if they have them

Cost: $40 per golfer includes T-shirt and Jr. Golf Tournament. Pre-register.

*On Course: While golf lessons are crucial to the Jr. Golfer’s skill development, it is also important that they actually get time on the course to learn to play the game. The on course opportunity is not mandatory, but is encouraged. BUT, all golfers entering grades 1-6 must be with an adult supervisor on the course. A parent or adult representing each golfer entering grades 1-6 is needed to volunteer to supervise one of the on course opportunities. The adult does not need to be a ‘golfer.’ Someone will be available on the course to start the supervisor and the group of 4-6 Jr. Golfers. The Juniors will play 3 modified holes on the course. The volunteer will get them to their starting hole and stay with them while on the course.
