

Child Welfare Notice

Could all golf club members and visitors be aware that Elsham Golf Club

- Has a Child Welfare Policy and Procedures in place
- Encourages all children using the Golf Club to do so free from harassment
- Asks all adult golfers to behave appropriately around children
- Wants all children to enjoy their golfing experience at the club
- Asks parents to take responsibility for their children when leaving them at the club
- Welfare procedures are in place to help all those involved with children at the club, themselves, parents, staff, volunteers, members and visitors
- Recognises the principles and good practices and ethos of the Children in Golf Guideline – ‘Safeguarding Children in Golf’

If anyone wishes to see the policy and procedures please ask at the office.
