The 1893 Club

Rules

1. The clubs forming The 1893 Club offer courtesy to members of the other clubs once per calendar year per individual member on a simple reciprocal basis.
2. Any tee times, bookings and arrangements to play to be made in advance with the secretary of the respective club.
3. Only members of those clubs registered with The 1893 Club can take advantage of the courtesy. Guests of club members will not be offered courtesy.
4. Approval to play criteria may involve a letter of introduction from a “home” club and/or a handicap certificate and should be confirmed by the player in advance of the visit.
5. All dress codes and club rules must be observed at all times.
