September, 2018

Craig Misch – Pro

August has come and gone with little fanfare...it's been hot and rainy and then hot again, we are all ready for a break from the heat. The course is in fantastic shape, greens are rolling great!!

I want to welcome a new employee to the pro shop...every one stop by and say hello to Dina. It will take her a little while to get up to speed, but she has experience from past jobs in golf, and I have known her for 40 plus years. Please stop by and introduce yourself to her and welcome her to the club.

Couples Labor Day tournament is set for Monday September 3rd...step back scramble, forty-eight members are participating!!!

Thanks to all who participated, don't forget to sign up for the Labor Day event on Sept.

3td. It will be a step back scramble.

EAGLES ARE FLYING

Bob Hadley #12-8/8/18

Debbie Dame - #11 - 8/31/18

This was Debbie's first hole in one and to everyone's knowledge it is the first while playing in the Putterflies Scramble.

Terry Stephenson - Maintenance

We are continuing treatment for mole cricket break throughs from the May treatment. We are also spot treating for weeds in areas. We will be putting out our pre-emergent products for poa annua this month. We plan to raise the height of the roughs to give us more Bermuda for the winter months of cart traffic. We will be verticutting and topdressing to get ready for over-seeding in October. Still getting Lots of rain so please keep carts out of wet areas.

Course Beautification

Many thanks to Conrad Krzyzanowski for his donation of a truck load of red bark that was placed around his memorial on hole # 5 for Barb, and enough was left over to put the red bark around the restrooms on hole # 5. THANKS CONRAD!!!!

PLAYING CARD BINGO – Diane Christie

We had a full house for playing card bingo on August 29th.... 18 tables. The Queen for the evening was Karen Teegarden and the King for the evening was Bill Marvil (Bill took Marie's place) and he had a great night. Hope Marie did not lose her place at the table.
